By signing this document I confirm that I understand, accept and agree the following information:

- ✿ I am not under the influence of alcohol, drugs or any medication that might affect my ability to participate.
- ✿ I am in possession of personal travel insurance which covers winter sports.
- ✿ I will pay full attention to the safety briefing and ask questions if I do not understand any of the actions.
- ✿ Neither I nor anyone in my party have any medical condition which could be effected by going on the safari.
- ✿ If I am pregnant, I have informed this to the guide, asked about the risks and have decided to take part at my own risk and at the risk of my unborn child.
- ✿ I am fully aware that this activity is at my own risk and if I am careless and an accident happens I will be self-responsible as the driver of the husky sled.
- ✿ The guide may make changes to the route or stop the safari according to conditions and ability of the group. I accept that the guide is in charge of the safari at all times and that their decision is final.
- ✿ I agree to any member of my party under the age of 18 to participate in the safari.
- ✿ I have received sufficient safety and driving instructions and watched and understood the safety DVD for the husky safari. I have also received sufficient information about the physical demands of this activity and will not exceed my own limits.
- ✿ I know that I can cancel the activity at any time and return back to the hotel.
- ✿ I am aware that non-accident related evacuation is at own expenses (300€/person).

- ✿ When on the safari I agree to the following:
  - ✓ To follow the guides instructions and hand signals at all times.
  - ✓ To drive in convoy and not to overtake at any time unless instructed to do so.
  - ✓ To leave 3-5 meters space between the husky sleds in front.
  - ✓ To remain seated while being as a passenger in a sled.
  - ✓ If the safari becomes too difficult or I experience problems stop and ask for assistance.
